

Deadlines for Extended Essay

IB Course 2018/2019/2020

By these dates at the latest:

Pre-IB Year	The students are familiarized with the EE
by 15 June 2018	You should have your supervisor chosen, as well as discussed and selected your topic at a meeting with supervisor
30 November 2018	First reflection must take place
December 2018 - February 2019	You are doing research, taking notes and consultation with supervisor
28 February 2019	Rough draft, and the notes and way of working has been discussed with supervisor. Rough draft is ready - supervisor decides what “rough draft” is (at least an introduction and one of the chapters)
17 May 2019	Two chapters of EE are done. Students must present them to supervisors and EE coordinator.
May - June 2019	Second reflection takes place
June – September 2019	You are writing the first draft of all EE components
29 September 2019	The first draft is complete (introduction, body of essay and bibliography)
20 December 2019	The EE has been given to your supervisor (at a final meeting), Viva – voce, and required statements signed
22 December 2019	Final reflection (viva voce) must take place.

NOTES

1. It is the student's responsibility to find a supervisor, and to ask for appointments.
It is never the supervisor's responsibility to look for students, or to suggest meeting times
2. Please give your parents this information
3. Be careful! The period March to November will also be used for writing some of your subject Investigation
4. A teacher can supervise up to 5 Extended Essays.
5. Students must be aware that this is their responsibility to upload the EE to the IBIS system in final year
